Lawyers

In addition to the opportunity to meet and network with other local business owners, Su-Ann and Adam will share some common issues their business clients have faced. They will give you practical advice on how you can prevent those issues happening to you.

The information session will touch on three topics throughout the evening:

- Managing existing debts in your business and prevention of bad debt
- New changes in employment law including the Award scheme
- Contractors v employees, and Unfair Dismissal: A summary for Employers

There will be opportunity for questions and discussion after each topic.

To learn more about the issues your business could potentially face, come along to our "Preparing Your Business for Growth" information evening.
